Collection Details

Biographical / Historical Note

Serials, photographs, ephemera and realia about Phoenix schools as collected over the years by the Phoenix Historical Society Museum.

Collection Description

The Phoenix Historical Society Museum has sought out historical materials related to Phoenix schools and over the years has received numerous donations from alumni. Included in the museum's collection are annual yearbooks, newspapers, class and individual photos as well as informal photographs. Several school histories are also in the collection. Many items in the collection have been digitized and are available in the Internet Archives, Stories of Southern Oregon.

Arrangement Description

Generally, by size within the archival clam shell box, large enough to house The Phoenician, 1941-1958

Separated Materials

To be determined

Related Materials

Southern Oregon Historical Society and the Talent Historical Society also have material on Phoenix schools.

Location of Originals

Primary and secondary material is boxed and also found in a variety of locations in the Phoenix Historical Society Museum.

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Various individuals and groups have donated material to the Phoenix Historical Society Museum over time. This collection also includes materials donated by Nannette Furry and other members of the family and community.

Subject Headings

High school students -- Social life and customs, Phoenix (Jackson County, Or.) -- Schools, Stories of Southern Oregon, Student newspapers and periodicals.

Processing Note

There may be photographs in the not-yet-scanned files of the 4-drawer file cabinet and in the drawers under the display cases. There are also materials related to most if not all of the families in the 4-drawer file cabinet.

Using the Collection

*ACCESS STATEMENT

Collection is open to the public and available for use in the Phoenix Historical Society Museum.

RIGHTS STATEMENT

The material in the Phoenix Schools collection may be freely used for non-profit, educational and research purposes. Any and all commercial use must be explicitly approved by the Phoenix Historical Society Museum. Copyright has been assigned to the Phoenix Historical Society Museum by various donors.
